[PROPOSED] SECOND AMENDED

Plaintiffs Downtown Music Publishing LLC (“Downtown”), Anthem Entertainment L.P. (f/k/a ole Media Management, L.P.) (“Anthem”), Big Deal Music, LLC (“Big Deal”), CYPMP, LLC, doing business as Pulse Music Group (“Pulse”), Peer International Corporation, PSO Limited, Peermusic Ltd., Peermusic III, Ltd., Peertunes, Ltd., Songs of Peer, Ltd. (collectively, “Peer”), Greensleeves Publishing Limited (“Greensleeves”), Me Gusta Music, LLC (“Me Gusta”), Reservoir Media Management, Inc. (“Reservoir”), The Richmond Organization, Inc., Devon Music, Inc., Essex Music, Inc., Essex Music International, Inc., Folkways Music Publishers, Inc., Hampshire House Publishing Corp., Hollis Music, Inc., Ludlow Music, Inc., Melody Trails, Inc., Musical Comedy Productions, Inc., Palm Valley Music, LLC, Words & Music, Inc., (collectively, “TRO”), Round Hill Music LLC, Round Hill Music LP (collectively, “Round Hill”), The Royalty Network, Inc. (“Royalty”), STB Music, Inc. (“STB”), TuneCore, Inc. (“TuneCore”) and Ultra International Music Publishing, LLC (“Ultra”), by their attorneys Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, for their complaint against Peloton Interactive, Inc. (“Peloton”), upon knowledge as to themselves and their own acts, and upon information and belief as to all other matters, allege as follows.

Nature of the Action

1. This is an action to recover more than $300,000,000 in damages from Peloton. Here’s why: it is a central tenet of copyright law that statutory damages should be imposed on a willful infringer who either has actual knowledge of infringement or who acted in reckless disregard of its obligations under the copyright law. Peloton is a textbook willful infringer. It has used more than 2,000 musical works owned or administered by Plaintiffs over a period of years in the videos that it makes available to its hundreds of thousands of customers without a synchronization (or “sync”) license for a single one of those songs. And there is no doubt that Peloton’s infringement was and continues to be knowing and reckless. Peloton fully understood what the copyright law required, having entered into sync licenses with certain other copyright holders, while trampling the rights of Plaintiffs by using their musical works for free and without permission. Those copyright violations continue, as Peloton creates new workout videos containing works owned or administered by Plaintiffs.

2. Indeed, it is only as a result of initial discovery in this lawsuit that the full scope and extent of Peloton's unlawful infringement has started to come into focus, revealing more than 1,000 additional musical works that Plaintiffs own or control that Peloton has infringed during the relevant time period, beyond the 1,000+ infringed works identified in the original Complaint in this action. Those newly discovered works include some of the most famous and popular songs ever recorded, such as "Georgia On My Mind," "I Can See For Miles" and "I Saw Her Standing There."

3. Peloton is one of the world's most successful fitness and technology companies. Founded in 2012, it is a hardware company and subscription service that allows consumers to replicate the experience of a high-end exercise studio at home. Peloton sells high-tech stationary bikes and treadmills that enable users to participate in instructor-led video workouts, while competing against other class participants and viewing performance metrics. It sells subscriptions to its video content library both to consumers who have purchased a Peloton bike or treadmill and those that have not.

4. Peloton's fitness videos contain music from start to finish. Music not only can provide a tempo for a treadmill run or stationary bike ride; it is essential to creating the instructor's desired atmosphere. Peloton publishes the music playlists for some of its archived videos and offers consumers the ability to select workout classes based on the type of music they want to hear, allowing them to choose a class focusing on, for example, classic rock, contemporary pop, electronic, hip hop or country, among other genres.

5. By Peloton's own admission, music is at the center of the ballyhooed Peloton experience. As Peloton said in a June 27, 2018 press release, "[o]ur members have embraced music as central to the Peloton experience and consistently rank it as one of the top aspects of the brand." Peloton nonetheless deliberately decided to use Plaintiffs' musical works without any regard for the rights of thousands of songwriters and creators whose music helped fuel the explosive growth of Peloton from a startup to a company reported to be valued at $8 billion.

6. At all relevant times, Peloton was fully aware that in order to lawfully embody copyrighted musical works in connection with visual images, copyright law required Peloton to obtain authorization from owners of the copyrighted works in the form of what is commonly referred to as a "synchronization" or "sync" license. A synchronization license allows the licensee lawfully to reproduce a protected work "in connection with" or "in timed relation with" a visual image, such as videos that Peloton records, archives and makes available to its customers. On information and belief, Peloton entered into sync licenses with owners of certain other musical works while inexplicably and unlawfully using the musical works of Plaintiffs over a period of years without license or recompense.

7. Plaintiffs therefore bring this action to enjoin Peloton's ongoing infringement of copyrighted musical works owned or administered by Plaintiffs, and to recover the maximum statutory damages resulting from Peloton's callous and flagrant prior and ongoing infringement.

25. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Peloton because its principal place of business is located within this District, and because Peloton has conducted systematic and continuous business in this District.

26. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b), 1391(c) and 1400(a) because Peloton has its principal place of business within the District and has committed, and continues to commit, acts of copyright infringement within the District.

The Facts

Plaintiffs' Exclusive Synchronization Rights

27. Plaintiffs are music publishers that own and/or control the U.S. copyrights in certain musical compositions (for the purposes of this Complaint, the terms “musical compositions” and “musical works” are used interchangeably), in whole or in part. Plaintiffs often administer these copyrighted musical works on behalf of the songwriters who composed those songs. Without the creative efforts of those and other songwriters, the music that Peloton uses in its workout videos simply would not exist.

28. The U.S. Copyright Act grants copyright owners such as Plaintiffs an exclusive bundle of rights with respect to each of their copyrighted works, which includes the exclusive right to reproduce, perform publicly and/or distribute (or authorize others to reproduce, perform and/or distribute) those copyrighted works. See 17 U.S.C. § 106.

29. Pursuant to this exclusive grant of rights, Plaintiffs license the public performance, reproduction, synchronization and/or distribution of musical works in their catalogs, collect the income arising from such licensing, and pay the songwriters their share of the license income, where applicable. Those songwriters, in turn, rely on those license fees to support their livelihood so that they can continue creating new songs.

30. A number of musical works owned and/or controlled by Plaintiffs are written by more than one songwriter, each of whom may be affiliated with a separate music publisher. To the extent that Peloton has obtained licenses from other music publishers with respect to their share of such joint works, such licenses, consistent with industry standard, do not convey rights with respect to the copyright interests of Plaintiffs or their administered songwriters in those works.

31. The right to license the synchronization of a musical work is derived from the copyright owner's exclusive right of reproduction. See 17 U.S.C. § 106(1). The word "synchronization" is used to describe this particular form of reproduction because "synchronizing involves making a piece of music an integral part of the audiovisual work — by recording the music in 'timed-relation' with the moving pictures in an audiovisual work." AL KOHN & BOB KOHN, KOHN ON MUSIC LICENSING 1086 (4th ed. 2010). "[T]he permission granted under a synchronization license is traditionally limited to the making of a recording of a musical composition subject to the condition" that "the recording only be used as part of the particular audiovisual work specified in the agreement." Id. Thus, use of the same musical composition in a different context or in a different audiovisual work "would require a separate license, carrying an additional fee." Id. at 1105–06.

75. Peloton has used a number of Plaintiffs' musical works in multiple workout videos. "Umbrella," for example, has been used in at least 55 separate workout videos since late 2017. Each of those uses required a separate sync license. Peloton obtained none. Similarly, "Diamonds" has been used in at least 45 separate workout videos in that period, and "Hit Me With Your Best Shot" is in at least 24 workout videos in that period, all without a sync license from Plaintiffs.

Peloton Builds a Highly Successful Business by Infringing Plaintiffs' Copyrights

76. Peloton was founded in 2012, at a time when gyms and fitness studios that provide stationary cycling classes were becoming increasingly popular. Peloton sought to profit on that popularity by providing an in-studio cycling experience that consumers could use in their own homes, at any time. To that end, Peloton offers and sells equipment and streaming workout videos for at-home stationary bike and treadmill fitness. Peloton has expanded its offerings to include yoga, strength, and other exercise classes, which are available via live and streaming video.

77. Peloton's chief product is a stationary exercise bike equipped with a 22" HD touchscreen that streams videos of Peloton's indoor cycling classes, both live and on-demand (the "Peloton Bike"). Peloton also sells a treadmill equipped with a 32" HD touchscreen that streams videos of Peloton's indoor cardio and strength workouts, both live and on-demand (the "Peloton Tread").

78. In addition to purchasing a Peloton Bike and/or Peloton Tread, consumers pay a monthly subscription fee ($39 per month) to access any one of over 13,000 Peloton workout videos at any time in the comfort of their own home.

79. Music is the lifeblood of the Peloton workout experience, driving sales of not just monthly subscriptions, but also of the flagship Peloton Bike and Peloton Tread products. Peloton Bikes and Treads allow users to measure performance metrics, such as their energy output, and compare themselves with others who have taken the same classes. The classes, in turn, depend on popular songs that inspire consumers to work out harder, faster, and more often. Indeed, Peloton has publicly acknowledged that music "fuels the workout experience," and that its consumers "embrace[] music as central to the Peloton experience and consistently rank it as one of the top aspects of the [Peloton] brand." Yet, despite the fact that music is "central to the Peloton experience" and "one of the top aspects" of the Peloton brand, Peloton has failed to obtain licenses from or pay certain music rightsholders—including Plaintiffs—for the use of their songs.

80. There is no question as to the deliberate and willful nature of Peloton's infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrighted musical works. Peloton is fully aware of the exclusive copyright interests of Plaintiffs and their clients in those musical works, and the need to obtain a sync license before using any of those works in its workout videos. Indeed, Peloton has in fact sought and obtained such sync licenses from certain other music copyright owners. Nonetheless, with one exception, Peloton has used and continues to use copyrighted musical works owned and/or controlled by Plaintiffs in its workout videos without ever having obtained such licenses from, and paying negotiated license fees to, Plaintiffs. The one exception involves Ultra, from which Peloton obtained a license for a limited time but then let that license expire, while continuing to use Ultra's copyrighted works in willful violation of Ultra's exclusive rights.

81. Based in part on its unauthorized use of the copyrighted musical works of Plaintiffs and other rightsholders, Peloton has quickly built a highly successful and lucrative business. Peloton currently has more than 600,000 subscriber members, and more than 1.4 million people have a Peloton account. Peloton's revenues have grown from approximately $60 million in 2015, $170 million in 2016, $218 million in 2017, $435 million in 2018, and are expected to surpass $900 million in 2019. As a result of its meteoric success in the marketplace, Peloton is reported to have a value close to $8 billion. Nonetheless, only 0.3% of Peloton's total revenue is used to pay rightsholders for the music that has fueled Peloton's success.

Plaintiffs' Discovery of Peloton's Infringing Conduct

82. Until recently, the fact of Peloton's infringement was effectively concealed from Plaintiffs. Peloton does not publish playlist information for the vast majority of the workout videos it has made available to consumers, access to Peloton's videos is limited to Peloton's subscribers, and even Peloton's subscribers are only aware of the specific songs used in the specific workout videos that they view. Indeed, it was only as a result of filing this lawsuit that Plaintiffs started to learn the full extent and scope of Peloton's mass copyright infringement. As a result, Plaintiffs did not (and could not have through reasonable diligence) become aware of Peloton's infringement of their musical works until years after the infringement began.

Plaintiffs' Injury

83. Since releasing the Peloton Bike in 2014, Peloton has repeatedly and continuously reproduced and synchronized recordings of Plaintiffs' copyrighted musical works without authorization from or compensation to Plaintiffs, in violation of Plaintiffs' exclusive rights under the Copyright Act. Such repeated and continuous infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrighted musical works was intended to, and did in fact, benefit Peloton by allowing it to provide to its subscribers a vast library of workout videos featuring some of the most popular songs ever recorded, without having to negotiate and pay Plaintiffs for the rights to use those songs.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Copyright Infringement)

84. Plaintiffs re-allege and reincorporate by reference all of the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 83.

85. Peloton, without the permission or consent of Plaintiffs, has reproduced and synchronized copyrighted musical works owned and/or controlled by Plaintiffs, including, but not limited to, the copyrighted musical works identified in Exhibit A, all of which have been registered with the U.S. Copyright Office.

86. Peloton's conduct infringes on the copyrighted musical works owned and/or controlled by Plaintiffs, and hence their exclusive rights under the Copyright Act in violation of 17 U.S.C. § 106(1).

87. Peloton's acts of infringement are intentional and willful, in violation of Plaintiffs' exclusive rights.

88. Each unauthorized synchronization of Plaintiffs' copyrighted musical works by Peloton constitutes a separate and distinct act of infringement, separately actionable under the Copyright Act, and giving rise to a separate statutory damages award.

89. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages in the amount of $150,000 for each infringement. Alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election and pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages, including Peloton's profits from its infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrighted musical works, as will be proven at trial.

90. Plaintiffs also are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment against Peloton and for the following relief:

- a. A declaration that Peloton has willfully infringed the copyrighted musical works owned and/or controlled by Plaintiffs in violation of the Copyright Act;
- b. A permanent injunction requiring Peloton and Peloton's agents, employees, officers, attorneys, successors, licensees, partners and assignees, and all persons acting in concert with any one of them, to cease directly and indirectly infringing, and causing, enabling, facilitating, encouraging, promoting, inducing, and/or participating in the infringement of, any of Plaintiffs' rights protected by the Copyright Act;
- c. An award of statutory damages for Peloton's willful infringement pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504, or, alternatively, Plaintiffs' actual damages, including Peloton's profits, in an amount to be determined a trial;
- d. An award of prejudgment interest according to law;
- e. An award to Plaintiffs of their attorneys' fees, together with the costs and disbursements of this action; and

f. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Jury Demand

Plaintiffs hereby demand a trial by jury of all issues so triable.
